Regal Alleges Crown Wants Too Much For Water Line Connection

Village Board Told China Co. Cannot Pay $2,500 For New Service

The agreement between the village and the Crown Realty company over the installation of the eight-inch water main on State Line rd. will call for some interpretation before the village takes over the water line extension, village trustees agreed Tuesday night.

This became evident when Walter Miller, superintendent of the Regal China company complained that Max Horwitz, president of the Crown Realty company wants the firm he represents to pay $2,500 for water connection.

This, he said, is far beyond the budget of the company which is struggling to gain its feet and get started again after having been prostrated by a disastrous fire.

Village Atty. Edward C. Jacobs said he was under the impression the charge would be made on the basis of a front footage of the applicant.

Clerk Clarence Shultis reviewed the minutes of the meeting in which Horwitz has caused to be written into the records the fact that the cost to industries would be a matter between his firm and the applicant.

Mayor James McMillen said that the village at this point will not go to the aid of either the Regal China company or the Crown Realty company, but that when the time comes for the village to accept the new main, a complete understanding would be called for.

McMillen said that a prohibitive price could prevent industry coming into Antioch and pointed out at the same time that an applicant to connect with the water main might not have any foot frontage on the highway on which the line is laid, but might want to run a line from the area to the south in making the connection.

Miller said his firm is concerned over the situation in view of the report that the present two-inch main serving the factory is to be abandoned at an early date because of its deterioration.

He said his company is now forced to connect with the main installed by Horwitz.

It was estimated that the Regal China company has a frontage of 400 feet and that on a basis of $5 a foot the cost should be around $2,000. It is evident that Horwitz wants the industry to bear a share of the cost of the extension from Main st.

Robert Jensen To Open New Jewelry Store To Replace Al Engler's

Robert Jensen of Edgebrook announced yesterday that he will open a jewelry store in the Field building about Oct. 16.

The store will replace the one closed last week by Al Engler, who plans to confine his work to watch repairing at another location to be announced later.

Jensen is now employed by the J. C. Jewellers, a manufacturing concern in Chicago, but plans to take charge of the new business here and move to this village.

The new jewelry store owner is not a stranger to this community. Mrs. Jensen, formerly Shirley May Jost, is the daughter of Mrs. M. Jost who has had a summer home for a number of years at Petite Highlands on Petite lake, and the Jensens have spent their summers at the summer cottage.

The new store will be known as the Jewel Box and will have a full line of jewelry.

Lake Villa School Band Association Will Meet

The Lake Villa School Band association will resume its regular monthly meeting at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the school lunch room with the new president, Mrs. Gordon Martin, presiding.

Leo Davis of Cranston, will be the guest speaker.

A big turnout is anticipated for this meeting. To belong to the association the parent need not have a child in the band. An attempt will be made to interest all parents in the organization.

A social hour will follow the meeting and refreshments will be served.

Second Appeal Sent To Soo Line Asking Depot Street Signal

Village Got No Reply From First Request to the Railroad

A second request for protection at the Depot st. crossing of the Soo Line where two Antioch men lost their lives recently will be made by the village board.

Three months ago after residents east of the village had petitioned the trustee for a better crossing warning signal, Clerk Clarence Shultis wrote to the railroad engineers at Stevens Point, Wis., but got no reply.

At Tuesday evening's board meeting, Atty. Edward Jacobs was instructed to write to the legal department of the railroad at Minneapolis, Minn., again requesting adequate protection.

Once a rarely used street, Depot st. is now widely used by people from an area east of the village that is growing rapidly.

The crossing has no warning signal or sign that can be seen at night and it was in the darkness that the deaths occurred two weeks ago. A lighted wig-wag or blinker sign is needed.

Should no action be taken by the railroad the next step of the board will be to appeal to the Illinois Commerce Commission. It was necessary to do this at Round Lake before any action was taken by the Milwaukee Road.

Fire Prevention Week Observed In Schools; Inspections Planned

The showing of movies on fire prevention in both the grade and high schools followed today by fire drills, was part of the action in Antioch on the occasion of Fire Prevention Week this week.

Fire Chief Simonsen said that before the week is over his men will inspect stores and public buildings for fire hazards.

The fire department was called to Lake Marie last Friday to extinguish a grass fire in a slough at the Forbich subdivision. On Saturday the firemen were called to Felter's subdivision and found a resident burning brush without permission.

Halloween Party to be at Grade School to Accommodate Crowd

Antioch Theatre and Antioch News Will Sponsor The Annual Event

The traditional Halloween party sponsored by the Antioch Theatre and the Antioch News for school children again will be held this year, but with a few beneficial changes.

Because of the increase in the number of school children and the fact that the Antioch theatre, no longer can seat the crowd, the party will be at the Antioch Grade School auditorium instead.

Present plans call for assembly at the grade school shortly after 4 p. m. as in the past. The children will mask and will parade down Main st. to Lake, up Victoria to Quality, and back north on Main st. to the grade school where they will file onto the stage for judging of costumes.

Prizes will be awarded as in the past, Howard Gaston of the Antioch News announced.

The change of place will make possible the attendance of kindergarten children as well as grade school children. Parents of the kindergartners may accompany them and see the show, whereas in the past they have been excluded for lack of room.

The show this year will be of the stage variety, a change from the past in which comedy film was provided. Fred Swanson, theatre owner, and co-sponsor of the party since its inception many years ago, is obtaining the acts for the event, and they will be announced later. Swanson will also act as master of ceremonies for the show as in the past.

Richard Whitacre, superintendent of the Grade school, will be in charge of the parade. Judges will be selected later.

Antioch to Meet Ela; Varsity Ties Grant; Sophs Beat Bulldogs

Antioch High School's football squad will go to Lake Zurich Saturday afternoon to face the undefeated Ela-Vernon Bears. On the basis of past scoring the game should be evenly fought.

The Sequoias and the Grant Bulldogs tied last Saturday night 13 to 13 at Ingleside.

Although Antioch gained far more yardage than Grant—the total was 238 to 166—the Bulldogs were able to hold their line at critical moments, and to make what few forward passes that were thrown, good ones.

An intercepted pass gave the Sequoias the opportunity for an early lead in the first quarter. After working the ball to within scoring distance a nine yard pass from Bill Terry to Bob Duda netted the touchdown. Tom McGreal converted from placement, giving the Sequoias the edge 7-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Antioch appeared headed for another touchdown in the second period after the Bulldogs tumbled giving the Sequoias the ball on the 45-yard line. Bobby Klaus intercepted an Antioch pass, however, and ran 55 yards to set the Ingleside gridders up in business on the 45-yard line. Three passes by Grenell carried the ball to the Antioch 13 and on a fake passing play Buddy Holm ran for touchdown. White converted from placement, and the half ended a tie 7-7.

Antioch regained the lead in the third quarter when Warren Brownlee ran 42 yards for a T. D. but the extra point was not made, placing the score at 13 to 7.

In the final quarter the Bulldogs snatched away what appeared to be certain victory for Antioch. Wells ran 45 yards to the Grant 4-yard line. A penalty set the Sequoias back five yards, and on the next play a pass was intercepted by Grant and run back 50 yards. After working the ball to the 7-yard line, Grant fumbled, but on the Antioch punt Bill Grenell ran the ball back to the 18 yard line. Three successful passes in order placed the ball on the one yard line and Bruce Sandberg plunged over for the touchdown. Noel White failed to convert, and the score stood 13-13.

Coach Paul Kessenich said that his team played good ball Saturday night but not as good as they are capable of. He was well pleased.

Many Shoppers Were Attracted Here For Annual Dollar Days

Shoppers from a wide area were in Antioch last week-end, October 1-3, to take advantage of the many bargains offered by local merchants during the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Dollar Days.

Merchants report that this second Dollar Day was much larger than the first, sponsored by the chamber in 1952.

It is believed that the prizes which were given away by most of the co-operating business firms were partly responsible for the great influx of out-of-towners shown by the prize winners list. While most of the prizes were won by local people, a few from some distance away are numbered among them.

Many New Laws That Affect Villages Cited By Atty. E. C. Jacobs

Atty. Edward C. Jacobs, corporation counsel for both Antioch and Fox Lake, said in the village board meeting Tuesday that during the sessions of the lawyers at the Municipal League convention in Springfield this week a number of laws enacted by the legislature were brought to their attention.

One legislative enactment now makes necessary a seven-day lapse between the time an ordinance is introduced and it is passed where such matters as appropriation of money, street improvements, franchises and licenses, and other matters affecting the public are concerned.

The ordinance is filed with the clerk for public inspection and after a week may be passed and published.

Village employees now come under the social security law and (continued on page 8)

Powles Wants Village To Take Over Winsor Drive He Now Owns

Frank Powles, local merchant, has asked the village to take over Winsor dr. off Main st., which he now owns and on which other residents of the street have easements. Powles told the village board Tuesday evening that he has the responsibility of paying taxes on the road, must maintain it, and has the liability of it, of which he would like to be relieved.

Mayor James McMillen said the village should take over the road as a matter of public safety. The village has been removing snow from it and maintaining it the same as other streets so the residents of the Warriner subdivision may get in or out.

Village Atty. Edward Jacobs was instructed to investigate the boundaries of the street and Powles was told that he must get signatures of those who hold easements to turn the short thoroughfare over to the village. It is only wide enough for one car now but can be made a two-lane street because of its 35-foot width.

Mary Tully, 14, Wins City Golf Title Over Champion at Waukegan

Miss Tully who hits them for 200 yards and better on the tee-off and plays a strong iron game, shot a phenomenal 30 on the first nine holes at Bonnie Brook. She had one eagle and three birdies, one of the latter coming on the long fifth hole.

The new champion is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tully. Her father is pro at the Chain O' Lakes golf course and his early training of his daughter is showing results.

Survey Seeks Desire for Adult Education at Antioch High School

The Antioch high school board of education has authorized Principal Albert Dittman to make a survey of the Antioch community to determine if there is interest in an adult evening program.

The board feels with the new building facilities completed that there is interest in the Antioch area for adult school classes. To determine this interest a survey is being conducted through the local paper. School children are also taking literature home which will explain the program.

Ten students must enroll in a subject to organize a class. A suggested listing of subjects is as follows: Typing, typing and shorthand, woodworking, home economics (sewing or cooking), band and chorus. These subjects and others will be offered if enough interest is shown.

A fee of $10 per subject will be charged with the exception of the music courses. A fee of $5 will be paid for each music course. The classes will operate for a period of 10 weeks. If there is sufficient interest shown in the survey actual registration will take place at the high school as soon as teachers are found and assigned to teach the various subjects.

The high school would like to get the adult program started the latter part of October. Classes will probably meet one night a week from 7 to 9 p. m. There will be no credit offered in any of the subjects. However, a certificate of attainment will be given to each student who has done satisfactory work and has a good attendance record.

There is a survey form in this paper that may be cut from the paper and sent to Antioch Township High School, Adult Evening School, Antioch, Ill. Survey forms may be brought to the office by high school pupils or brought personally by the adult.

"The Worst Thing That Can Happen to Labor"

On many occasions, labor leaders have denounced the profits earned by industry—saying, directly or by inference, that these profits amount to a species of robbery, with the working people the principal victims.

Happily, that attitude is not universally true, as an editorial in the August issue of The Electrical Workers' Journal attests.

The editorial began by quoting Samuel Gompers, one of the great labor leaders and organizers of all times, as saying: "The worst thing that can happen to labor, is for the employer not to make a profit."

Then it continued: "It's still the right, the just, the honorable thing to 'give a good day's work for a good day's pay', and when any member of organized labor forgets that, he is stealing, whether his conscience tells him so or not. . . ."

"We of organized labor earnestly desire labor-management cooperation. We want free collective bargaining. Well, we must never forget for an instant our part, the labor part of labor-management cooperation. We must have the employer's interest at heart, if we expect him to have our interests at heart."

This is the attitude that, in the long run, will do more to advance the welfare of labor than anything else.

Voice of the People

The advocates of socialized electric power—whether by local, state or the federal governments—invariably claim that public opinion is heavily on their side.

However, they never have much to offer in the way of factual support of this claim—and for a very good reason. The record doesn't bear it out. Over the years many elections have been held, principally on the municipal level, in which voters were called upon to express their opinion as to the merits of private power service. In the majority of cases, the result has been strongly affirmative.

Oklahoma provides a good example. There state law provides that franchises for rendering electric service can be granted only by a vote of the citizens and for not longer than 25 years. Between May 16, 1944 and January 13, 1953, franchise and franchise renewal elections were held in 100 Oklahoma communities served by the state's principal power company. The combined vote cast was 41,252. The amazing total of 40,170 of these votes favored inauguration or continuation of the service by the utility, as against a mere 1,022 against. In other words, nearly 98 out of each 100 voters, in free elections, showed confidence that the utility was providing good service at reasonable rates.

The fact is that the socialized power movement, in the main, has been a political movement, in which the people at large had no voice. The principal contribution of the people to the movement has been to pay through the nose for the tax subsidies and the tax freedom socialized projects enjoy! And all the evidence indicates that the people have become mighty weary of that.

Tattered Laundry

The following little item is reprinted from Time magazine: "Now that Malenkov himself has criticized the shoddiness of Soviet consumer goods, Pravda is washing some of the tattered laundry out in public, complains that Soviet rayon underwear does not survive a single laundering, that men's shirts fall apart in the tub."

In past times similar official criticisms of Soviet production and distribution agencies have appeared, and have usually proved a prelude to wholesale liquidations of managers and technicians who fell out of favor with the powers-that-be. But what is significant to us Americans is the character of the system that makes manufacture and sale of such shoddy goods possible.

The answer of course, is found in the nature of communism and socialism. The state owns practically everything—including all of the factories and the vast majority of retail outlets. There is no competition as we understand the word. If the consumer doesn't like what he is offered, or thinks the price excessive, he has the privilege of doing without and going cold or hungry.

Contrast that with conditions in the United States. Every manufacturer is in direct competition with other manufacturers, and all are trying to sell the public on their trademarks. Every store from the biggest chain to the smallest independent tronage. The result is the best deal for our money is competing with other stores for consumer patronage that the cost of carrying on business will permit.

The Low Down from Hickory Grove

For my sermon today I select the text, "If you are a governor or a mayor or what, and choose to be re-elected—and easy as pie—pay heed."

If you got in on promises of something or other, don't go and start running for another term before you have made a start on doing what you said you would do and which got you elected. A Wisconsin Gov. quite a spell ago, got himself in by sayin' he would do so and so. So when he said down in the Gov.'s chair he ups and did so and so just like he said. Hard to believe, you say, but here is how he did it. To be elected a majority of the votes was needed—he got 'em—so when a few of the fringe and noisy minority showed up at his office, stamping their feet, he told 'em to go on home—he was busy running Wisconsin. And as you know, as each election year rolled around this stalwart gentleman was re-elected like shootin' fish.

Moral: If you want to get in again as Gov. or mayor or what, do as this gent from the land of fine beer-cheese, munkalonge and malted milk did—do as you said you'd do—stop running, just tend to business. And before closing the sermon I choose to put a pat on the back of another Gov.—Persons of Alabama—that boy just signed a bill putting the quietus on the closed shop—that marks him as a person of vertebrae, and Alabama as a state of distinction.

Tuesday evenings. Also, every Saturday, tune in the TV Football Game of the Week—a "GM" Key Event

Why should you do yourself out of the big things in motoring life?

Why pass up the room and power and comfort and niceties of big-car travel—when you can buy a big, new Buick SPECIAL for just little more than the price of smaller cars?

We show our price here to prove our point—to prove that you can buy this Buick SPECIAL for just a few dollars more than you have to pay for one of the so-called "low-price three."

Just a few dollars more for a lot bigger hoodful of power—Fireball 8 power—the highest horsepower ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL.

Just a few dollars more for big and spacious 6-passenger roominess—and the solid, steady comfort of Buick's famed Million Dollar Ride.

Just a few dollars more for Buick styling, Buick handling, Buick luxury, Buick fun.

THE GREATEST

BUICK

IN 50 GREAT YEARS

But do you know what else those few extra dollars get you in this big, broad, beautiful Buick?

They get you a long list of standard equipment at no extra cost that most other cars at or near its price charge you for, as extras—which makes our quoted price even lower than it looks.

We have the facts and figures to prove our points. All we need is you, at the wheel.

Drop in on us this week and see for yourself that your new-car money really buys big—in Buick.

Band Instruments to Be Shown at High School Next Tuesday Evening

All people of the community who are interested in instrumental music are invited by the school authorities to attend a demonstration and display of musical instruments at the high school on Tuesday evening, Oct. 13.

Visitors may come any time between 7 and 9 o'clock on Tuesday evening. They will be met at the front door of the school by uniformed band members. These band members, acting as guides, will escort the visitors to the music room where other students will be in charge of demonstrations.

A Chicago firm is co-operating with the high school music department in this demonstration. It will have representatives of the company at the demonstration to discuss various types, qualities and prices of the many types of instruments used in bands today.

Tuesday morning the high school concert band is presenting a demonstration type program in a student assembly. Students who do not already play an instrument will be given an opportunity to indicate a desire to begin study on one. Freshmen and sophomores are especially welcome to join the growing number of school instrumentalists in our community.

The Antioch High School offers music instruction free of charge to all students. Advanced, intermediate and elementary class type lessons are given on all instruments during the normal school day. All students in instrumental work are eligible to be chosen as members of the concert band.

The following students will be aiding in demonstrations: Lillian McNeil, oboe; Lynn Bolton, clarinet; Shirley Oilschlager, bass clarinet; Nancy Rentner, saxophone; David Cain, cornet and trumpet; John Steitz, french horn; Robert Cain, baritone; Jaclynne Martin, trombone; Tom McGreal, bass horn. Ushers will be Martha Thomas, Betty January, Jay Cribb, Elmer Oelkers and Norman Peterson.

Danish Hardware.....

the International Trade Development Division, U. S. Department of Commerce.

From Antioch the visitors will return to Chicago and on the following day they will go by airplane to Madison, Wis., which is the seat of the Dane County government as well as the location of the University of Wisconsin where the group will be entertained.

Within the following month the trip of the Danish hardware men will take them to California with return stops at Kansas City, Mo., and Indianapolis, Ind., on their way to New York and home.

Surprised by Word of Visit
When R. E. Coddington, owner of the Antioch store was told by telephone that the distinguished visitors were coming he thought he was the victim of a joke, but a letter from George C. Payne, regional director of the Chicago office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, National Production Authority, U. S. D. C. followed by a receipt of a printed itinerary of the Danish group dispelled any doubts about the authenticity of the notice.

Coddington is of the belief that his store was chosen because of an article in the Sept. 3 issue of the Hardware Age. The article accompanied by pictures of both the interior and exterior of the store had the caption: "If I Were to Open a New Store."

Store Has Big Trade
Success of the store which draws trade a distance of between 20 and 30 miles the year round, is attributed to the fact that the 22,000 items gives the customer a greater chance of finding what he wants. The article through its nationwide circulation probably came to the attention of those planning the trip who wanted a good example of a progressive and successful new business in a small community.

Car of Sidney Soncek Stolen Friday Night Still Not Recovered

Two automobiles were stolen and a third borrowed last Friday evening in Antioch. Only one has not been recovered.

A Buick 1949 black sedan belonging to A. H. Olsen was stolen from the implement yard at the rear of the furniture store and later recovered in Fox Lake.

A 1951 Plymouth belonging to Sidney Soncek of Spafford st. and left in the care of Ray Toft of the Shell station to be sold, was stolen from the front of the Antioch theater during the night and has not been found. Toft left the car on the street while he took his wife to the Libertyville hospital, and unfortunately left the keys in it.

The third car, a Ford, was not recorded as a theft.

The Order of Rainbow for Girls will meet at the Masonic hall on Oct. 19 instead of October 12 as was originally planned.

Many New Laws.....

applications may be made immediately.

Need Not Pay Sales Tax
Cities no longer need pay the sales tax.

The lawyers of the Municipal League do not agree with those of the Chicago Motor club who say that parking meters on state highways cannot subject a motorist to a penalty if he fails to put money in them.

Fox Lake has had a number of refusals to pay for parking violations. Antioch has none because the state just maintains the center lanes on Main st. and not the side or brick portions of the main street.

Jacobs said that one village got the state to dedicate one foot of space at the edge of the street to the village so that penalties could be assessed for parking violations.

The new law provides that the village clerk can also be the village collector.

May Act on Fire Hazards

In case of nuisances or buildings which are a fire hazard, village can now give notice to the person in charge of the property and if no action occurs can go ahead and remove the hazard and charge the costs as a lien on the property.

It is still wise, however, to get the court's order, Jacobs said.

Villages can now institute annexation procedures and do not have to await action from areas to be annexed.

There are now two means of raising revenue for villages and cities. One law permits billing of property owners for the collecting of rubbish and the other permits a one cent tax on each package of cigarettes.

Whereas, the theme of National Business Women's Week, "The Ramparts We Build," is a vital principle in a great, free, and democratic country; and

Whereas, the organization of The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, incorporated, is contributing much toward the advancement of business and industry;

And whereas the Antioch BPW Club, as an affiliate of The National Federation, is likewise contributing much toward the improvement and progress of business, industry and civic needs in our community,

Now, therefore, I, J. W. McMullen, Mayor of the Village of Antioch, do hereby proclaim the week beginning October 11 and ending October 17, 1953 as Business Women's Week in Antioch and urge our leaders of business and industry to join in this observance.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Antioch to be affixed this 6th day of October, 1953.

(Seal) J. W. McMULLEN Mayor.

Missionary to Congo To Speak at Baptist Church at Lake Villa

Dr. Leonard Gittings, famed American Baptist missionary to the Congo, will speak for the Autumn Fellowship supper of the Lakeland Baptist church at Lake Villa Friday night at 7:30 p. m. It was announced this week.

Dr. Gittings is a native of Wales, was educated in England and America, and served in the Belgian Congo. His missionary ministry included contact with primitive African tribes, translation of the Bible into Congo dialect, medical and educational work. He is reported to have witnessed thousands of conversions of the tribesmen to Christianity.

The veteran missionary is a popular speaker at American Baptist conventions and churches. He holds several earned and honorary academic degrees. He now occupies the chair of Missions at Northern Baptist Seminary.

The Lakeland fellowship supper is sponsored by the Women's Missionary society of the church. At the spring supper a native of India presented an informative address on India and Christianity. It is expected that Dr. Gittings will also speak to a large audience.

The supper for members and friends will be at 6:30 p. m. The program and speaker will be presented at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to hear Dr. Gittings, says Rev. John Barbee, the minister of the church.
